THEME

Raise Your Voice, Change the World

Art has the power to capture the public's attention, provoke thought, and inspire action. It is a medium through which voices can be amplified, messages can be shared, and the world can be changed.

PROMPT

Create artworks that explore and expand on this year's theme in innovative ways, such as:

- Highlight social justice issues, address systemic inequalities, and promote activism.
- Pay homage to individuals who speak up against injustices and prompt change.
- Showcase how art itself can be a form of activism, from street art and protest signs to performance art and digital activism.
- Voice-based works that issue a call to action in service of contemporary social issues such as racial equality, gender rights, environmental justice, or civic engagement.

ARTWORK GUIDELINES

- All media is accepted (painting, drawing, photography, sculpture, digital art, musical recordings, poem/spoken word, and video)
- Three-dimensional submissions: no larger than 36" wide x 36" high x 36" deep
- Written submissions: 250–500 words
- Recorded submissions: max 3 minutes
- Artwork must be original
